

北門 BEIMEN

After the last rays of sunset
Tranquility covers the land
Wending through the old office
Refracting through the lovely church

Beimen

Sightseeing map

TIPS 1

▪ All-Taiwan Wangye Head Temple

Daitianfu Temple in Nankunshen is actually two temples, the larger Daitianfu dedicated to the Wufu Wangye (Five Lords) and the smaller Wanshan Temple to Wanshanye. This is the largest and oldest Wangye (plague god) temple in Taiwan; it is a national historic site, and a Michelin three-star tourist site.

▪ Kunshen Salt of Peace Festival

This annual festival is centered around Daitianfu Temple and the core of the salt industry, Beimen. Held in November, it incorporates the salt industry, religious faith, ecology, and other cultural resources of the area.

Travel Information

Beimen Visitor Center

• No. 200, Jiucheng, Beimen Village, Beimen Dist., Tainan City.

• 06-786-1017

Jingzaijiao Tile-paved Salt Fields

• No. 64, Jingzaijiao, Beimen Dist., Tainan City.

• 06-786-1629

▪ Money Coming Grocery Shop

• No. 187, Jiucheng, Beimen Village, Beimen Dist.

• 0982-685859

▪ Taiwan Blackfoot Disease Sociomedical Service Memorial House

• No. 27, Yonglong Village, Beimen Dist.

• 06-786-2012

Accommodation Information

Salt Country House 06-786-2643

Salt House Leisure B&B 06-786-2643

Meixiang B&B 06-786-4427

Delicious Snacks

Fulong Restaurant 06-786-1588

Meixiang Seafood Restaurant 06-786-3058

Wu Ji Sea Snails in Wine Sauce 06-786-3307

Changying Seafood House 06-785-0577

Xiubi Oyster Fritters 0934-081-365

Nankunshen Seafood Shop 06-786-4215

A-man Snacks 06-786-3008

Tea Magician - Beimen Yonglong Store 06-786-2253

Hi-Life Convenience Stores - Yanfu Store 06-300-0521

Fu Yishan Foods 06-786-1118

Church House Coffee 0978-285-997

Beimenyu Restaurant 06-786-0303

Xinhong Restaurant 06-786-3664

Southwest Coast National
Scenic Area Travel Website

Tainan Tourism Website

Legend

- Expressway
- Provincial highway
- County highway
- Country road
- Scenic spot
- Temple